

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Bill Fadden, Village optician, sings the current hit tune this way: "My Dreams are Getting BUTTER All the Time." ... Bernard Weissmann, Los Angeles Examiner, in a letter to Secretary Ruth Jones of the Chamber of Commerce, suggested this slogan for the Village: "Come to Palm Springs and we'll tan your hide."

THE VILLAGE—Remember "No, No, Nannette," "Oh, Lady Be Good," "Hit the Deck"? Jane Feil, who starred in them and so wowed London, is in town, a guest at the Lone Palm. Looking at her, you'd say she must have been a child star. ... Also at Horace Height's Lone Palm is Jan Keipura, noted singer. ... Connie Barbeau of the Dunes spent the week in Long Beach with relatives. Husband Ruby bought her a 1931 Model A Ford. She's driving it back to the Village, as proud of it as if it were a Cadillac. ... Every time Ruby brags about the new car, Ben Provost, piano player there, starts out on "The Surrey With the Fringe on Top."

NICKNAMES—Cecil and Mrs. Isenagie smoothed the path for their youngsters at school. They named them Michael, Peter and the latest one, born this week, Jeffrey. They'll be Mike, Pete and Jeff, easy nicknames. Knew a man once by name of Holbrook who had four boys and decided he'd name them so they'd never have nicknames. Chose three letter names for each—Guy, Jay, Roy and Leo—and every one of them was known in school as "Holy". Have almost forgotten what my real first name is. Have been called "Phat" so long. Was the original Mr. Five by Five.

TRAFFIC—Note to Village motorists—take it easy. The police motorcycle has been rescued from the scrap drive and returned to good running order. It'll be on the prowl again soon. The traffic holiday is going to end. ... What a fertile field Palm Springs is for a motorcop! ... At first there'll be just warnings—but after that: "Good Morning, Judge." ... A few months ago a fellow from Chicago told me that if you can negotiate Palm Canyon drive without bagging two pedestrians you can drive anywhere. Then he asked me "what's the limit?"

CHICKEN OF THE SEA—When Jimmy Partridge was sent to San Francisco by the Navy, Mrs. Frank Partridge prepared a nice fried chicken and sent it to him. Son Jimmy was shipped overseas a few hours before the chicken got there. That was in January. This week came a letter from Jimmy. It was from a point in the south Pacific. He said the fried chicken, after four months of unrefrigerated travel in the tropics finally had caught up with him. "Immediately after opening the package, I sent it over the side," he wrote.

THIS AND THAT—First there was the Chamber of Commerce "Moonlight Barbecue," then, this week, the Palm Springs Fish and Game chapter's "Fish Fry." I'm in favor of having more of these out-door get-togethers. ... And for a good time, that Gay 90s baseball game staged by Majors and Minors of the air base was great fun. Too bad if you missed it. ... The Rev. Robert M. Hagar is quite proud of the new cooling system installed at the Episcopal church. All churches should have an efficient cooling system. Would serve as a reminder to the congregation.

WHAT TO SEND—What to send boys overseas? The Navy has the answer. A questionnaire conducted of the folks at home top the list. Next canned foods for a quick snack—olives, sardines, salted nuts. Then, books, writing cases, service watches, good pipes, pens, waterproof wallets, cigaret lighters. Articles which meet with disappointment are candy, cake, cookies, fancy shaving kits and cigarets. Confections and pastries seldom arrive edible, there is little storage space for fancy toilet kits and the blue-jackets get plenty of cigarets.

STATISTICS—You've always heard about the average man. Well here he is, according to the Mira Loma Quartermaster's depot. Hat, 7½, gloves, size 9, shirt, 15 collar, 32-inch sleeve, jacket, 36, trousers, 32-inch waist, 31-inch length, socks, size 11, shoes, 9-D. These figures were taken from army tables showing "frequency of issue." ... In Dallas, Tex., a girl married a lieutenant, 5000 miles away by proxy. Then she cabled: "Missed you at the wedding. Happy honeymoon."

IN CLOSING—So much on my mind—if any—this week that I almost forgot to mention music. Think that this "Sentimental Journey" number is slated for the top. Although it's been out for some time, heard it the first time last Friday, too late to tout it but the next night it was on the Hit Parade for the first time and in the number three spot. ... Next Wednesday is Memorial Day—a legal holiday in 40 states. In the other eight, all in the South, Memorial Day ranges from early in April to the middle of May.

School Tax Rate Boost Up at Polls

Special Election Scheduled Here Tuesday, June 12

Voters of Palm Springs, Cathedral City and other sections of the Desert School District will go to the polls at a special election June 12 to decide whether to lift the maximum tax rate for the district from 90 cents to $1.50.

Notices calling the special election have been posted and are published today.

The election was called, Francis F. Crocker, head of the board declared, to provide additional classrooms and teachers now badly needed to relieve the crowded condition of the schools.

ONE OF LARGEST

The Desert School district is one of the largest in the county and operates four schools. The attendance has increased by more than 200 since the last building was added to the system.

Peak enrollment reached 632 this year and all facilities were taxed to the limit. Classrooms were crowded and teachers provided for far more than the maximum number of pupils per room. In one room here were over 50 pupils and it was necessary for two teachers to use this room jointly, creating a difficult situation. Practically, every room had more than the normal teacher load.

SEE NEW GROWTH

Because by fall there will be available 150 additional living units in Palm Springs, school trustees anticipate a still greater increase in school enrollment next fall.

Parents and public-spirited citizens should, by all means, support this plan and get others to do the same. Absentee ballots will be available at school offices.

New Committee On Signs Named

Barney Johnson, who suggested recently that one activity of the Chamber of Commerce should be a drive for better and uniform street signs, was appointed chairman of a new committee to investigate the matter. The appointment was made by President Robert Ransom of the Chamber this week.

On the committee with Mr. Johnson are Albert Frey, architect, and Harold Hicks, realtor.

Clyde K. Owens Killed in Action In Philippines

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Winger of Cathedral City this week received the sad news of the death in action of their grandson, Clyde K. Owens, on Luzon. He was a machine gunner in the U. S. Army.

He was killed in action on April 26 according to word from the war department this week.

He was 20 years old and had been in the service two years.

Probation Granted in Morse Case

Robert L. Morse won his plea for probation when he appeared Monday in superior court for sentence on a manslaughter charge. Judge G. R. Freeman, sitting for Judge G. R. Freeman in department one of the county court, granted three years probation based on good behavior of the applicant.

Morse was accused of manslaughter after an automobile he was driving was wrecked north of the Village. Mrs. Morse was killed when the car overturned in a heap of boulders.

School Days End Today for 800 Local Youngsters

School days came to an end today for approximately 800 youths of Palm Springs and until Sept. 17, there'll be no plugging away at school books.

Commencement week started last Sunday with Baccalaureate services at Community church and will end tonight with graduation exercises at Palm Springs high.

Certificates were presented sixth graders at Frances S. Stevens school Wednesday, diplomas to eighth graders last night (Page 2, columns 3 and 4) and will be presented to high school grads tonight (Page 12, column 1 and 2).

Terms Fixed For Directors Of Hospital

They held a lottery at the meeting of the Palm Springs Community Hospital directors last Friday—but it was entirely legal. They decided by lot which of the directors would serve the one year term, which the two year term and who would be on the board for three years.

Under supervision of Mrs. Frieda Zimmerman, in charge of the hospital office at the Red Cross headquarters, the names of the 30 directors were written on slips of paper. Three large squares labelled one year, two year and three year, were drawn up.

TERMS SELECTED

Ten folded slips were placed on each square and the results showed:

One year terms—Ernest Alschuler, Hazel Wilson, William Malouf, Blanch Turronet, Clara Koehner, Alvin Weingarten, Caroline Hicks, Maizabelle Markham, Robert Ransom and Fred Ingram.

Two year terms—Ruth Hardy, Lloyd Simon, Josephine Sprague, Kenneth Kirk, Arthur E. Bailey, Earl Coffman, Lucetta Lippman, Gordon Feekings, W. R. Hillery and Virginia Farrell.

Three year terms—Margaret Leussler, Teresa Fields, John Williams, Charles J. Burket, Ida Hochkiss, E. E. Theriault, Florian Boyd, William Dean, Philip L. Boyd and Ed Bacon.

ONLY $5,000 MORE

Remainder of the meeting was devoted to discussion of plans for equipment for the new hospital and details of the program were smoothed out.

It was announced that the drive for the $200,000 goal was all complete except for $5,000 which was expected to be in soon.

Investment of $100,000 in short-term bonds to draw interest on the money while awaiting its need for construction purposes was ratified by the board.

Local Chaplain Reported Killed

Word was received at the 5th Operation Training Unit Base at the army air field here that Capt. T. C. Northrup, chaplain at the base for some time who recently left the service, was killed in an automobile accident. No details were received beyond that the tragedy occurred on the east coast.

Capt. Northrup, who had served as chaplain since 1942, was en route to a separation center at the time.

During his service at the local base, he became highly popular with servicemen and Villagers.

Newest Addition To Isenagie Family Arrives

Jeffrey Addison Isenagie will make his initial appearance in Palm Springs next week when he comes here with his mother, Mrs. Cecil Isenagie. Jeffrey A. was born last Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock at the Riverside Community hospital. He weighed six pounds and two ounces on arrival.

Two brothers, Michael, 10, and Peter, 8, will greet him here. His dad is head of Tanner Motor Livery here.

Fire Razes Residence After Party

Winter Home, Owners Absent, Totally Destroyed

The large winter residence of Mrs. Geraldine Hazard at 2310 Tamarisk avenue, Araby Tract, was totally destroyed by fire with all of its contents at 5:50 a. m., Tuesday. The house was a mass of flames when neighbors spotted the blaze and turned in the alarm. The Hazards had recently closed the house for the summer months and left the property in charge of a caretaker.

Preliminary investigation by Fire Chief Bill Leonasio, he said, indicated that the caretaker had gone to Los Angeles, leaving the property in charge of a friend. It is believed that this friend was host at a party Monday night in the house and that a neglected cigaret may have started the blaze.

Insurance on the house was listed at $5,000 and on the contents at $2,000. The nearby garage was saved from the flames. Investigation of the fire is continuing.

Two fires, within a few minutes of each other, were recorded Monday. At 11:30 a. m., firemen were called to the Desert Inn where an adjacent grass fire threatened the dormitory building. It was put out without damage.

At 11:45 a. m., they were called to the home of Mrs. May Haynes, 344 Hermosa place, where wind had scattered a rubbish pile and ignited grass. Damage was nominal.

Drivers' Tests To Be Given Each Week Hereafter

Starting in June, drivers license tests will be available in the Village once weekly instead of twice a month, according to information received by Chief of Police August G. Kettmann and the Chamber of Commerce. The tests will be presented by Chris Lovely working out of the office of the California Highway Patrol at Indio.

They will be given every Thursday, starting at 9:30 a. m. and closing at 4 p. m. This new service supplants the one in effect here throughout the season—tests on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

Until a new location is announced, the drivers' license tests will be conducted at the Chamber of Commerce, 310 North Palm Canyon drive.

Annual American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Sale Starts in Village Today

Annual American Legion Poppy sale was started in Palm Springs today and will continue tomorrow. To Mayor Eugene E. Theriault went the honor of buying the first poppy and the sale was made by Mrs. Jay Morrison, head of the Legion Auxiliary Poppy Days committee. Mrs. Charles Knupp, president of the Auxiliary, and Harold Lienau, commander of Owen B. Coffman Post, American Legion, also were present.

The little red flowers being sold by Auxiliary members today were made by disabled war veterans and the money derived from their sale will go to the disabled veterans of both world wars and their families.

Advance sale of the poppies was made at some gatherings here yesterday and business was brisk.

After an on-again, off-again on-again week in which it was reported motorists would get more gasoline, then denied, it was finally decided Tuesday that A-16 coupons, good on June 22, will be worth six gallons each, a 50 per cent boost. B-book holders who can prove the need, will also get a 50 per cent more in mileage.

Big Quota Surpassed Thursday

Palm Springs Now $10,000 to Good; Boost E-Bond Sales

It was just a little after 3 p. m. yesterday, when Chairman Tom Holland got the figures of sales of Bonds in the Seventh War Loan.

The total was $503,956.25. The goal for the Village in the Seventh War Loan campaign is $511,180.

"Less than $8,000 to go," he said. "It would be nice if we could top our quota before you went to press. Wait a minute."

HE GETS BUSY

Mr. Holland got busy on the phone. This reporter left for The Sun office with the reminder "call me up if you get it."

Now, it's only a five minute walk from Lykken's to The Sun office—if you don't loiter.

But when the reporter reached his office he was told: "Mr. Holland's on the phone. Wants to talk to you."

And there it was. Palm Springs had done it again. For Mr. Holland had this to report:

"Mrs. Saddle Bunker and Mrs. Lily Goff, you know, they're sisters, have bought $5,000 each—that's $10,000 and we're over the top by $2,000."

Ten minutes later he called again.

"Add $8,000 more to that. We're $10,000 above our quota."

HOW IT IS TODAY

So as matters stood at 8 a. m. today, total Bond sales here were $521,956.25 against a quota of $511,180.

Two weeks ago Mr. Holland had been worried. He doubted if Palm Springs could reach the largest quota ever assigned it just as the season was about to end.

The total attained today includes Bonds bought at the Bank of America, Palm Springs postoffice, Cathedral City postoffice, Torney General Hospital and the 5th Operational Training Unit, army air base.

STREBE, AS USUAL

Earl Strebe, who, as usual, is contributing heavily to the drive, announced today that the picture for the premiere next Wednesday evening, is entitled "Where Do We Go From Here?" starring Fred MacMurray and Joan Leslie. The picture will be shown at The Plaza and admission will be by receipts from Bond purchases only.

With the aid of public relations and fiscal officers of Torney and the Air Base, who are working strenuously to aid the Village.

Police Unscramble "The Case of The Case of Eggs" with Arrest of
Two Men and Return of Stolen Goods

Local police this week unscrambled the case of the case of stolen eggs with the arrest of two men who were subsequently turned over to federal authorities.

Chief of Police August G. Kettmann today praised local cafe men and merchants for their cooperation which resulted in quick recovery of property stolen from Torney General Hospital and the arrest of the two men involved.

First action on the case came when cafe men notified local police that two men were trying to peddle a case of eggs, containing 30 dozen. Sgt. Orest Johnson and Policeman Harry Hann took up the trail and the men with the eggs in their possession. They arrested William Phillips, 36, of Hatchett's Court, and Theodore Marshall, 55, of the civilian barracks at Torney. Following questioning, the two confessed, police, to taking the eggs from a store house at the hospital. Both were employed there as mess attendants.

The eggs, valued at $12.80, were returned to their refrigerators at Torney and the men turned over to Federal authorities for disposal of the case.

Applications for CAP Membership Re-Open This Week

More lessons in radio communication and drills occupied members of the Palm Springs Civil Air Patrol squadron Monday night.

Commander Ed Stephens who has been in Los Angeles conferring with CAP officials there, reported he had made application for additional equipment for the local squadron and that an engineering group would be organized to study airport layouts, air markings, topographical maps and the like.

Commander Stephens also said that applications were again being taken for membership in the local squadron. With the arrival of summer, some members have moved away, creating vacancies. He also said that the squadron planned to drop those whose attendance did not meet certain requirements. To keep the squadron at a level of fifty members, applications are again being received.

The Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, vicar of St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal church, joined the squadron this week as chaplain.

Daisy's Day---

Or—How to Become a High School Secretary in 10 Easy Lessons

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Mrs. Marian Kellar, after a particularly busy day at her desk at Palm Springs high school where she is secretary, dashed off the following article. Since the High School Smoke Signals, weekly school page, has been discontinued for the year, the feature, much in demand by P.S.H.S. students, is herewith published in its place this week.)

By MARIAN W. KELLAR

The harsh roar of the alarm clock dashes my dream boat onto the rocks of another day. Willing, nay eager, to cope with the responsibilities confronting me, I leap forth. To be strictly truthful, the leaping forth actually occurs about an hour later. Due to the shattered state of my nerves, I find it absolutely necessary for me to remain in bed for "just a few minutes," to collect myself. I drop into a doze, wake with a start, consult the clock; decide I have time for just a few minutes more, take another little cat-nap, and suddenly discover, to my utter horror, that it is seven o'clock!

THIS TIME IT'S REAL

No question about my leaping forth this time—I not only leap forth, but I leap under the shower, leap into the kitchen to put water in the teakettle; leap into my clothes; give my hair a quick one-two, and the bed covers an equally casual toss. While the coffee drips, I put on my face; and while the bread (if any) toasts, I put on my earrings, after which I consider myself fully dressed.

Now! Jumping into my car, I dash to the school just as fast as possible. I can hardly wait!

NOT FOR JUST A DAY

And sure enough—there they stand—the two who ALWAYS, no matter how early I arrive, precede me. They view me with reproachful eyes and chide me gently for being late. My nerves are still in a jangling state from being startled by that nasty old alarm clock, and I sternly suppress my desire to snap. "After all, I don't have to SLEEP here, do I?" I smile sweetly, while opening the office door and ushering the early birds in. No matter what kind of weather we are having, they always prefer to spend their mornings in the office. In the winter time it is too cold for them to wait out doors. In summertime it is much too hot, and besides, the office is the coolest place in the building, and I am

VERY lucky to be working there!

And with this cheery note, we start our day in the office.

Now comes the bus—and comes the thundering herd. For the next fifteen or twenty minutes I am busy writing out entrance slips, handing out pencils (for a slight fee) and demanding, "Where were YOU yesterday?" and "Did you bring an excuse?" The answer is always the same—"I was sick" and "I forgot my excuse."

THEY WALK ALONE

The bell rings, and the crowd thins out magically. Now you see them, and now—goody, goody, you don't!

Ah, but wait! Here come the stragglers! Dozens of 'em, all complaining bitterly about missing the bus and having to walk all the way to school! Puffing and panting and mopping their brows, they sadly accept their tardy slips, gripe about the make-up period imposed as a penalty, and trudge disconsolately off to class, after pausing outside the office door to moan about Daisy being such a hard-hearted old bag!

I bring out the report cards—alas, this is that dreadful time of the year. No matter how dull business has been for the past six weeks, and how seldom the telephone rang, just let me get knee-deep in report cards and here we go!

The telephone rings and Mrs. Whozit wants me to have Mr. Greeley call her. I jot down the message and pick up my pen.

"Daisy, can I have a pencil?"

Pencil handed out, I again pick up my pen.

"Oh, Daisy, I want a pencil TOO!"

The telephone rings. "What is the number of the junior high school?"

WHY DO THEY?

I tell them the number, wondering just why it is so much easier for people to look up OUR number and ask me the number of the Junior high, than it is to look up that number in the first place!

"Daisy, what period is assembly?"

"We aren't having an assembly, as far as I know." Where were we? Oh yes! Report cards. I start all over again, and remember that the bulletin has to be typed and ready to send around next period. So I type the bulletin, take it out of my typewriter, pick up my pen and record a couple of grades.

The Boss comes in. "What period do we omit for assembly today?"

I tell him, very reproachfully, that I didn't know there was to be an assembly, and that I am always the last person to know anything around this place! The Boss apologizes abjectly for forgetting to tell me, and dictates a notice for the bulletin.

I re-type the bulletin. "Daisy, Mrs. Henderson wants some lined paper."

I get the paper. "Daisy, how come I've got a make-up period? I made that up yesterday!"

TIME OUT TO EAT

Patiently I get out my little make-up book and point out the fact that, although they DID make up a period yesterday, they also were tardy fifth period and got another one!

Thus goes the morning, and now comes the most harrowing part of the entire day—LUNCH HOUR!

This really should be the most delightful period, but it seems that various things conspire to completely spoil it for us.

First, after peering furtively out the front door to see if any would-be riders are lurking, Kay and I finally venture forth, and just as we are about to hop into the car, out from the bushes pop dozens of people, all of whom want to ride to town with us. This, alone, is enough to spoil our lunch period. We finally manage to shake them off, one way or another, and arrive at our eating place.

We may take our choice—the corner drug store where they are still serving breakfast only, or the place where the cross blonde waitress simply goes into a tail-spin the moment she sees us enter. Now actually we are VERY agreeable customers, and what we want we always ask for smilingly. We say please, and thank

Veterans Warned to File Exemption Claims by May 31

"Veterans, service men and church organizations intending to apply for property tax exemption have only a few weeks remaining in which to file their claims," County Assessor Frank Burchfield stated today.

"California law provides an exemption of $1000 from taxation of property owned by veterans or service men who meet the qualifications prescribed by California constitutional law. The claimant must have acquired the status of a veteran or have been in the armed forces of the United States on the first Monday in March, and the property on which he claims exemption must have been of record in his or her name on the same date. The law further provides that the applicant shall not own property either taxable or non-taxable, here or elsewhere to the value of five thousand dollars. The exemption law which formerly applied only to discharged veterans was amended at the last election to include persons now serving in the armed forces. Provision has also been made whereby the spouse or legal representative of a person now in the service may file the exemption claim in his or her behalf.

"Buildings used solely and exclusively for religious worship, where no rent is paid to the owner, are free of all general taxes provided a claim for exemption is filed annually with the assessor. Failure to follow the required procedure for filing a claim for either church or veterans exemption is deemed by law to constitute a waiver of the claim. No claims may be accepted after 5 p. m. on the last Monday in June."

Theme "Soul and Body"

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty," sings the Psalmist in the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson. Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

A Scriptural citation from John's Gospel relates that when Jesus had cleansed the temple, the Jews came to him, saying, "What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou dost these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "The Master said plainly that physique was not Spirit, and after his resurrection he proved to the physical senses that his body was not changed until he himself ascended,—or, in other words, rose even higher in the understanding of Spirit, God."

"Parents are urged to encourage children by their presence on this occasion," said Rev. Hogarth. "It has been a wonderful year with the greatest number of children, officers and teachers with a perfect attendance."

The Young People's Fellowship ended their season last Sunday and will meet again on Sunday after Sept. 15.

TWO SERVICES SUNDAY

During June, Rev. Hogarth announced, two services will be held at St. Paul's at 8 and 11 a. m. The parish choir will sing each Sunday at 11 a. m. with rehearsals on Tuesdays at 4:30 p. m.

The Sunday School and Young People's meetings having closed for the season, members remaining in town were invited by Rev. Hogarth to attend the morning services.

Modern Cooling System Placed In St. Paul's

St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal church, has just completed installation of an 8000 foot modern cooler and Celotex duct, two feet square and 24 feet long. The cooled air is brought through the attic from the rear of the church to the front of the nave near the ceiling. The blower can be used without water when ventilation alone is required.

The installation will make services on hot summer Sundays and in early autumn more comfortable, the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, vicar, said.

Local Order of DeMolay Attend Banning Rites

Palm Springs Chapter, Order of De Molay journeyed to Banning last week for initiation ceremonies in the lodge room of San Geronio Lodge No. 668 F. & A. M.

Master Councillor John Outcault presided, with Tom Griffith as senior councillor and Gilar Boyd as junior councillor.

The initiatory degree was conferred upon Beauford Victor Hansen and Robert Russell Miller of Banning and Andy Bump, William Joseph Brummit, and Dick L. Moseley of Palm Springs.

MASONS PRESENT

The impressive ceremony was witnessed by Dr. W. C. Gunner, principal of the Banning high school and E. A. Hudson, senior deacon of San Geronio lodge. The delegation of Masons from Palm Springs included Judge Guy Pinney, Dr. E. E. Oertel, Kenneth Du Bose, Gordon Peeking, Lance Johnson and Marvin Sale together with the members of the advisory council of the chapter: Bryson Amos, Lloyd Simon, R. F. Outcault, James Henderson, Arthur Greenfield and Chester Hooper.

"Palm Springs chapter is growing—growing in membership—growing in achievement just as De Molay is growing nationally and internationally," chapter heads said.

"De Molay is now acknowledged the third largest organization in the United States. Everywhere boys of the high-school-age bracket are awakening to its value to their community. The age limit for petitioning De Molay is now from fourteen to twenty-one years.

GROWTH IS RAPID

"In many cases Chapters have recently doubled and even trebled their memberships. Not long ago Seattle Chapter initiated a class of 47; Spokane, Washington one of 53; Tacoma one of 74 and Stockton, California, one of 67.

"Of the individual Chapters, Kansas City, Missouri, the Mother Chapter, is the largest with a membership of 1076. Next in line is Akron, Ohio, with 788. Then Oola Khan Chapter of Cincinnati, Ohio, 514; Worcester, Massachusetts, 495; Alton, Illinois, 486; Dayton, Ohio, 488. On the Pacific Coast, Seattle, Washington chapter has 424 members and Sacramento, California Chapter, 319.

"De Molay is well represented in the nation's capitol. Our beloved ex-president, Franklin D. Roosevelt was Honorary Grand Master and Active Member of the Grand Council of the order.

WASHINGTON CEREMONY

On March 5th, in the office of Harry S. Truman, then Vice-president of the U. S., and Active member of the Grand Council for the state of Missouri, L. Mendel Rivers, member of Congress from South Carolina and Lt. Big Crowd Enjoys Fish Fry Staged By Village Group

Scores of Villagers rallied at Walter Illick's Rancho Trailer Park Monday evening to enjoy an outdoor feast of fish, corn on the cob, baked potatoes and what goes with them. The occasion was the first Fish Fry of the recently organized Palm Springs Fish and Game conservation association. Harold Lienau is president of the group.

Long tables were spread in the park and loaded down with food. Following the feast, a trio of musicians from the army air base furnished music for dancing.

During the dinner, Village marksmen showed their skill at target shooting.

The affair was a great success with many requests for 'more'.

A postwar under-water tunnel to connect Copenhagen, Denmark with Malmo, Sweden, is proposed it would be 7½ miles long and have space for a two-lane highway and a one-way electric railway.

Villagers and Servicemen Get Big Laugh Out of Annual Gay Nineties Softball Game on Field Club Lot

A tornado of convulsive laughter echoed and eddied back and forth across the Field Club stadium Wednesday night when more than 500 Palm Springs residents and military crowded the stands at the Field Club to witness the annual "Gay Nineties." Majors vs. Privates, softball game of the 5th Operational Training Unit, Army Air Base here.

Although hilarity, clowning, monkey-shines and goofy antics on the part of the opposing players rocked the stands with roars of amusement, there was an undertone of serious playing on the part of both teams.

COLORFUL PICTURE

The uniforms of the Majors were something out of this world. Dressed in tightly fitting, long pantalooned swimming suits, reminiscent of the gay 90s, their curvaceous forms were starkly delineated. To this attire, the faces of the officers, clownishly made up, added considerably to the colorful and jocular picture.

The Privates, who were first on the field, retired behind the stands before the game was called, to emerge in long GI woolen underwear, to again shake the stands with upheavals of laughter.

ADDS TO FUN

Adding considerably to the comic scene was the selection of Chaplain Clifford F. Perron as umpire. He came in for a considerable amount of rough-housing by both teams, when at times they disagreed with his decisions.

Nevertheless, he in turn added some of his own funny contributions to the show.

As to the game itself, which was a vehicle for the comical performance, the Majors did try hard to win the game. However, the Privates, after running up a safe margin of 6 to 1 in their favor, and with the game obviously in the bag, they began to play with the Majors like a well-fed cat does with a tiny mouse. The final score was, officially, 10 to 2 at the end of the 6th inning, when the game was called.

The game, which was scheduled to start promptly at 8 p. m., was purposely delayed in order to make the entry of the Majors a dramatic and spectacularly funny one. Quite suddenly, with a fanfare of music, an ambulance—usually present at all military athletic events—made its appearance on the diamond, coming to a stop in front of home-plate. The rear doors opened and it immediately began to disgorge the comically attired Majors.

HAD 'EM WORRIED

Beneath their bathing suits many of the officers had stuffed padding to give the impression of rotundity. However, this had an opposite effect, calculated or otherwise, on the rear of their frames, stretching the bathing suits to a point just short of bursting at the seams. This imminent disaster caused many of the spectators to hold their breath when, for example, one of the Majors would be compelled to stoop for a hot grounder from the bat of any of the Privates.

The Privates, attired in their long woolen underwear, with metal derby hats colored in red, white and blue, did, in the case of two of their players, come close to losing the fastening pins which held up their pants. This brought simulated consternation to the faces of the victims and thunderous shouts suggesting remedies from the stands of spectators.

Once during the height of the game when the Privates were at bat, Pvt. James knocked a hot grounder to right field and then instead of running for first base, ran for third and then on to second, with his entire team after him yelling that he was running the wrong way.

HE RIDES AROUND

Another incident which highlighted the game was when Clark, hitting a hard single between first and second base, jumped on the back of Calick and rode piggy-back clean around the bases for a home run on errors on the part of the Majors.

Major John R. Hamilton, captain of the Majors was the spark-plug for all of the comic antics emanating from their bench. Lt. Col. Sponsler, who played first base, and well in the opinion of those present, laughed so hard at the antics of the Privates on one occasion that it took several minutes for him to regain his composure. Major William E. Hinton, who happened to be standing close to first in the capacity of coach, came in for a considerable amount of back-slapping from the convulsed Lt. Colonel.

TIMEOUT TO DRINK

The occasion was when Calick who was pitching for the Privates rocked back and forth grotesquely on the pitcher's toe plate, and then tossed a slow ball at the batter, who missed the ball in his eagerness to slam it over the fence.

Quite suddenly the game was called by the umpire, Chaplain Perron, attired in mask and breast protector. He motioned for the catcher to hold his mask up from his face while he nonchalantly drank lemonade, to the amazement of all present.

Major Thomas J. Johnson, Jr., director of personnel and administration, with his uniform more than amply padded in front, had a huge red ribbon tied around his midriff, looking caricaturely like a large, over-stuffed cupid.

ON THE TEAMS

The officers' team was comprised of Lt. Col. John W. Sponsler, Majors John R. Hamilton, Paul V. Davis, Vincent A. Carson, Frank H. Jerdone, Charles I. Emerson, William E. Hinton, and Thomas J. Johnson, Jr. Due to the unexpected departure of several other Majors scheduled to play, the following Captains substituted: John H. Anderson, Herbert Fulton, Bernard A. Broadus, George W. Evans, and Donald C. Macfadyen.

The team of Privates on the field were Morris, Calick, Heick, Weir, James, Majarian, Pelleterio, Sellers, and Uhling.

SPLIT HOMER PRIZE

As the two teams took up their positions, Barney Sikes, of the O'Donnell Golf Course, offered to give $5.00 in war savings stamps to the first Private to knock a home-run. The second inning had hardly commenced when Majarian lifted one into

5th OTU Softball Team Scores 7-0 Win Over Marines

The softball team of the 5th Operational Training Unit, Army Air Base here, white-washed the highly touted El Toro Marines in a fast game last Friday night. Behind the stellar pitching of S/Sgt. Glenn Cartwright of the All-Stars, who pitched a no-hit, no-run game, the local air base boys amassed five hits. Cartwright was never in danger.

The Palm Springs team collected one run in the first frame when Pantaleo singled, stole second, and came in on Grove's long fly to right field. In the second inning, Fass singled, Espinoza made first on a fielder's choice, and both men crossed the plate on Pantaleo's hit when there was a Marine error.

In the fifth, Cartwright clinched the game by bringing in Pantaleo with a sizzling two-bagger over third, and then scored himself on a fielder's error.

Deep Sea Sport Not So Good But Fishermen Are

Ocean waters, slower in warming up this year, have affected deep sea fishing which has been poor but fishermen are plentiful and enthusiastic, according to members of the Sportfishermen's Association of Newport Harbor. Live bait and charter boats operating out of Newport Harbor have been catching a few barracuda, a few bass, some halibut and a smattering of other fish. Bait is plentiful.

A few big halibut have been reported. Mrs. Louise Hopton of Long Beach landed a 32½ pounder on light tackle. A. E. Braken-siek of Bellflower got a 16½ pounder. P. E. Cady of Long Beach caught a 22 pounder. Le-Roy DeVol of Los Angeles was credited with the largest white sea bass of the season, a 20-pound one. H. Schmidt of Los Angeles caught a 35-pound halibut from a skiff fishing in the bay. Several halibut ranging from 11 to 16 pounds have been landed off both the Newport and Balboa piers.

Outstanding fish of the week was a 16 and ¾ pound silverside salmon hooked from a live bait boat off the mouth of San Juan Creek near Dana Point by E. F. Schlosser of 3616 Highland Avenue, Manhattan Beach. Schlosser was one of a group of more than 20 anglers from Department 77 of the Northrup Aircraft Corporation enjoying a day's outing out of Newport Harbor. The silverside salmon is a rarity in these parts. Only a dozen or so have been caught in as many years. Last year, available records show only two were reported.

Village Scouts Have Wonderful Time On Outing

Through the generosity of Marvin D. Sale his two and a half ton truck was donated together with his driver to take 18 boys of Palm Springs troop 39 part way up the serpentine grade of Palm to Pines highway where the boys took off Saturday morning and hiked down into Deep canyon and then up the canyon to where they could dam the stream and have a swimming hole. The boys under the supervision of Robert Hillery cooked their own meals, slept out in the open and returned to the highway Sunday afternoon where the Sales truck again picked them up. Minor casualties were extraction of cactus thorns, burns and cuts. These emergencies were attended to from a kit furnished for the occasion by Dr. Leon Miller. Mrs. Philip Boyd had offered the use of her car to facilitate the troop movement. The boys report a wonderful time.

deep center for a four-bagger, and his act was quickly duplicated by James. Majarian, on receiving the reward, split the Sikes' offer with his team-mate. Lemonade and cake were furnished free to all the spectators. Lt. Louis Olshansky, under whose supervision the game was arranged, was highly pleased with the civilian attendance.

Bombers Blast A Softball Team by Score of 16 to 1

There was "murder" without pity in the hearts of the Bombers Wednesday night. The locale was the Field Club's diamond and their victim was the Section A softball team. The score was one which reminded many of the spectators of their early teen aged days when as youngsters they played on empty lots and no one kept a tally of the runs, to end up with the victors claiming the score was 50 to 1.

At the end of the game, Section A walked off the diamond with a 16 to 1 defeat. Pitcher Cartwright for the Bombers, living up to the record which he has established for himself so far this season, only allowed one man to cross the plate. Fass behind the plate did an admirable job. Van Amburgh to Kornack was the battery for Section A. The Bombers took four home-runs during the one-sided battle.

Nevertheless the deterioration of Section A's team can literally be laid at the door of Mr. Mars, who has sent many a good player to the showers during this war. Several of the early season starters with this team have shipped off to distant bases of the Air Transport Command. Among them was their best pitcher, Sgt. Timothy Donovan.

Just the same, the hooting, yelling, and "throw the pitcher out" made for a good night's entertainment. The stadium was filled.

Weight Lifting Class Active at Army Air Field

A weight lifting class at which the York-Barbell system is taught, is drawing considerable, if not curious interest, at the Army Air Base here. At present the class, under the direction of First Lieutenant Hyman Zimmerman, personal affairs officer, boasts of ten ardent students. The instructor, who hails from New York City, has had considerable experience as a weight lifter. To the neophyte in weight lifting, there is much which inspires him with awe, when, after several lessons, he is able to focus his muscular ability in lifting dead weights, an act which hitherto he regarded with considerable amazement.

At present, First Lieutenant Sidney Lawrence has lifted from the floor, and to a full armed stretch above his head, 195 pounds. This act called a "military press" has not been surpassed by any of the pupils so far, it is said.

Those among students taking lessons are 1st Lieutenants Herman Waldman, Martin J. Lieberman; Chaplain Clifford F. Perron; Captain Herbert Rock, and Cpl. Cutcher.

Quarterly Tests Show Big Gain In Condition

The quarterly physical fitness test conducted at the Army Air Base here, home of the 5th Operational Training Unit, showed a general improved condition of all the military personnel, according to First Lt. Louis Olshansky, officer in charge of physical training.

The test indicated that a majority of the personnel placed in the "good" category, with the flying officers showing the greatest improvement. Seventy percent of that group placed in the "good" classification, and 19 percent in the "very good" column.

Memorial Day 1945

Next Wednesday America observes its fourth Memorial Day since the dastardly attack on Pearl Harbor. Many of the young men, who patriotically answered their country's call after that attack, now lie buried in cemeteries across the sea. Others have given their lives while preparing to serve their country on battle fronts.

We at home should give thanks for them, this Memorial Day, and to the others who are still fighting in this world war. They had a war to win. They have already been victorious in half of it and may be able to complete the job before another year is over.

We have a peace to win; and unless we make a peace, that will insure freedom from war for the sons of the veterans of this war, we shall have failed them and they will have fought and died in vain.

Two veteran Marines were bragging about their respective outfits. "When we presented arms," said one, "all you could hear was slap, slap, click."

"With us, it was slap, slap, jingle," said the other.

"Jingle? What was that?"

"Our medals."

Wife: "How do you like my new gown? I got it for a ridiculous price."

Husband: "You mean you got it for an absurd figure."

The young man was rather shy, and after she had thrown her arms around him and kissed him for bringing her a bouquet of flowers, he jumped up and grabbed his hat.

"Oh, don't go," she said, as he made for the door. "I didn't mean to offend you."

"Oh, I'm not offended," he replied. "I'm going for more flowers."

Ruth Haniman, daughter of Mrs. Randolph Haniman, 155 Prescott drive, celebrated her twelfth birthday Saturday with a merry party prior to a meeting of the Girl Scout troop to which she belongs.

The party picnicked in Tahquitz canyon and later joined the Scout meeting where two big birthday cakes had been sent by Mrs. Haniman.

Guests at the gay affair were Deon Nielsen, Collette Cassidy, Lydia Boyd, Gaile Johnson, Susan Oliver, Barbara Gibbs, Deane Cross.

Two Candles On Cake Feature Birthday Party

The second birthday anniversary of Donna Gail Weeks, daughter of Chief Warrant Officer and Mrs. Lowell K. Weeks, was the occasion for a gay little birthday party Wednesday afternoon. A cake with two candles on it was the feature.

Little guests present were Ann Turner, Judy Zimmerman, Linda and Jimmy Kuhn, Billy Moore, Polly Self and Donna Gail's sister, Linda.

C.W.O. Weeks is bandmaster at the army air base here.

Community Church Choirs Heard in Enjoyable Recital

Four choirs from the Community church presented a recital at Frances S. Stevens school last week to the great delight of a large audience. The program was directed by Holly Lash Visel with Mrs. Lois Lux, accompanist.

The Cherub choir, composed of 4th, 5th and 6th graders, the Junior Choirs, the Chapel choir, of high school girls, and the Chancel choir all presented several numbers, thoroughly enjoyed.

TRIO WINS PRAISE

The Palm Springs Trio, Mildred Wagner, Violet Fowler and Mrs. Visel were also heard in a group of songs which delighted the gathering.

Soloists were Patricia Fowler, Marilyn Crockett and Margaret Illick. Patricia Fowler sang the title role in an operetta, "Bernadette" assisted by Betty Wright, Nancy Nye and the Junior Choirs.

PLAY IS FEATURED

A one-act play "Romance" in which Cherie Washburn, Joan Whorton and Hazel Veith appeared, was also featured. Marlene Markham, Wendell Veith, Jon Visel and Carolyn Knupp appeared in the miniature quartet which opened the program.

Violet Fowler read a handful of authentic letters from governmental agencies.

The entire program reflected the successful training of young, intermediate and adult voices by Mrs. Visel, director of music at the Community church.

The eight girls who graduated from the ranks of the Brownies were Eleanor Purcell, Sandra McDonald, Mary Alice Chapman, Shirley Doyle, Carol Ann Cameron, Barbara Moore, Jacqueline Davison and Shelby Gray.

Mrs. French addressed the Brownies and then presented them to Mrs. Smith who awarded them their wings.

Thirty-four members of the Girl Scout troops were present and with their eight new members, joined in a picnic luncheon. Saturday being the birthday of one of the Scouts, Ruth Hannaman, an extra treat was provided for the lunch in two big birthday cakes sent by Mrs. Hannaman.

Chest Fund Aids Americans Held In Nip Prisons

Americans and other United Nations civilians captured by the Japanese on Guam and Wake Island have been supplied with clothing, towels, and comfort articles by War Prisoners Aid of the YMCA, member agency of the War Chest, according to information recently sent to A. B. West, chairman of Riverside County War Chest, from the California War Chest.

News of these civilian internees comes from His Excellency W. Bagge, Swedish Minister to Japan, who represents the interests of War Prisoners Aid in Japan. According to Mr. Bagge, the Congress of Industrial Organizations augmented YMCA with a special grant of $3500 in April of 1944 for the relief of the captured civilians.

His investigations show that the group from Guam had been interned in Kobe, and those from Wake Island have been sent to Shanghai. Internees at the latter camp had already received a considerable amount of relief goods, while the Kobe internees had received practically nothing. It was decided, therefore, to use most of the money for Guam internees.

Mr. Bagge found it impossible to purchase underwear, sweaters, towels, and other articles in Japan. After enlisting the cooperation of the Swiss Consulate General in Shanghai, Mr. Bagge remitted the necessary funds to Stockholm, from where they were cabled to Shanghai to permit the purchase of relief goods in that city. After months of delay due to poor shipping facilities, the relief goods were distributed to the Guam internees.

War Prisoners Aid of the YMCA has regularly distributed relief supplies to our men behind barbed wire.

People who come to California believe this state has a wonderful system of improved roads but those who are planning the future highways for this state have visioned a system that makes our present roads comparable to the horse and buggy period. The system to cost some seven hundred million dollars will effect this area vitally. One unit from Los Angeles will come through San Geronimo Pass and in the area near Indio it will divide, one fork continuing down the valley to the border and then on east, the other would keep to the north passing through Blythe and on to Phoenix. The proposed Limited Access Highway will come into the Pass through St. Timothy Canyon Pass to the south of the present highway through Beaumont and Banning and arrive on or near the present junction of our 111 with 99. Because of wind, grade and sharp curves the highway engineers want the main road to follow our projected side of the Coachella Valley to a point just beyond Point Happy where the southern branch would bear south through an area where there is no road now. Palm Springs does not want the noise, fumes and undesirable visitors that would result from the highway passing within its municipal boundaries and has requested the authorities to keep it to the north. Neither Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage nor Palm Village nor the developments that are planned between these communities want this great and needed highway to run the length of the narrow belt of desirable and sheltered home areas.

Cathedral City chamber of commerce on Tuesday evening passed a resolution requesting the Highway Department to locate the proposed Limited Access Highway north of Whitewater Wash after it passes the Palm Springs area and continue the road on the north side of the wash until in the region of Point Happy at least.

The meeting was notable for the consideration of several matters that concern the future welfare of our village.

The question of sanitation is never a dead issue. Mrs. James K. Wolseth introduced a resolution requesting a sanitation ordinance from the county that would strengthen the hand of the county health department and would bring into line the few who do not cooperate in the local effort to maintain a clean and sanitary desert. Mrs. Marie Ide having resigned the Sanitary Service collection job, it was given to Carl Higgins who has promised to negotiate several small problems with Mr. Harris who handles the pick-up. Carl is a good man for the job and on and after June first, all checks and payments should be mailed to him. The point was again brought out that while the chamber of commerce sponsors anything for the good of the community, it does not assume liability for the service nor anything resulting from the operation of same. Two resolutions were addressed to the board of supervisors, one requesting the establishment of a set back along the highway through the village, the other establishing building zones in this subdivision.

A petition to the county to accept the streets of Cathedral City as county roads was circulated and signed. It was reported that Frank C. Russell was conferring with E. Q. Sullivan, state highway engineer, to establish an official grade on the highway through the village. This is an important matter that has been the subject of correspondence in the past. President James K. Wolseth appointed W. R. Hillery and C. S. Cobb to act as an executive committee during the summer months when many of the officers and directors will be absent from the community. Prof. Kyle reported he had placed a gadget on the fire truck that will permit it being attached to most passenger car bumpers so the truck can be towed if it becomes balky about running. A vote of thanks was extended to him. A typewriter was purchased for the secretary and Harriet Colglazier was all smiles. She says it works very nicely.

When you buy your War Bonds for this Seventh drive, it would be a fine gesture to make out an F Bond in favor of the Cathedral City Library Association. It is becoming more apparent that we need a library building to serve until such time as the larger building can be financed. This week another fine gift of books was made. More than one hundred volumes which included the renowned five foot shelf of books, were the gift of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Kemp who are establishing their home in the dwelling recently purchased from Mrs. William G. Hagen. Dr. Kemp asked for the return of the large wooden packing case as there are additional books that he will contribute from his Lake Elsinore library. About seven hundred other books are in storage which I have previously reported as gifts but there is not sufficient room to house them in Town Hall.

Kurt Reinman got a nice write up in Sunday's Times about his showing of paintings in Los Angeles. We have the makings of a colony of sane painters in Cathedral City that we may well be proud of.

Guess it will have to be next week that we list the new structures and improvements that are taking place here. One of them is the new postoffice building that a group did all but lay the cornerstone, Saturday night at a party with supper at the C. S. Cobb residence. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Cobbs' niece, Mary Ellen Stockall who many remember when she was employed in the postoffice. And Brooks Peterson whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson, were with him, visitors of the H. E. Petersons. Harvey and Roy are brothers. I did not mention last week that from the Peterson ranch the week before a gay time was made when an old-fashioned hay-ride party drove from the ranch into one of the canyons and had a weiner bake and an all-around good time, returning to the Ruth Metz home where music and dancing were added.

Mr. and Mrs. Halp C. Henley of Hemet are vacationing and renovating their new desert holdings, the former Hal Sausser place north of the highway.

William and Rose Chance have returned from San Francisco and are doing work on their property on north Cathedral Canyon Drive. Dr. and Mrs. Jos. J. Almaceny were here this week looking after the construction of their commercial building east of Potters Cathedral Grocery and that reminds me that Steve the butcher has departed and the Smedley couple are operating the meat department. Wallace Kenney of Gray Bar in Los Angeles and croney of Bud Kelley is stopping at Abels Court while vacationing and has a crew improving his farmlet at Desert Cove Ranch. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Petty and Mrs. Petty's sister, Miss Redwine, are here from Mountain View doing their annual vacationing on the desert. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collins, owners of the three apartment court on the corner of Glen and A are still here. They say they are enjoying the vacation before returning to their home and business at Laguna Beach. Morgan Gephert with Mrs. Gephert, with their two children, are visiting his parents, Mr. and

United States Will Not Have Time to Prepare for Next War, Aviation Firm Official Tells Palm Springs Lions Club

James H. Quick, executive assistant and public relations officer for North American Aviation, Inc., told members of Palm Springs Lions club yesterday that America will never have time again to prepare for war at it did in the present conflict. The club met at the Del Tahquitz hotel with President Lloyd Simon in the chair. Mayor Eugene E. Theriault was program chairman for the day.

Tracing step by step the Nazi spread over Europe and the Japanese advances in the Pacific, Quick in his address on "Air Power for Peace" compared our own state of preparedness at the time of each enemy triumph until the eventual turning point in the Allies' favor.

TOOK FOUR YEARS

"Not until the fourth year of World War II were we strong enough to stage successful offensive drives," Quick said. "The future never again will allow us three years and four months in which to prepare for a war after the war is actually underway."

Pointing to the great air blows which helped crush Germany and the growing might of our air power in the Pacific, Quick warned, "We must not permit the satisfaction of the present to fog up the facts that went before."

CITES FIGURES

Going back to the start of the war with Germany's attack on Poland September 1, 1939, the speaker pointed out that the Nazis then had 18,000 modern, battle-tested airplanes and a production of 1,200 per month. At the same time the United States had 2,600 military aircraft and was producing at a rate of about 100 planes a month of all kinds.

"Supposing the Nazis had been more thorough in their long range plan," Quick questioned, "and based on the facts of World War I would have selected this country first in which to demonstrate their power. How long would we have lasted?"

During the so-called "phony war" in Europe, the speaker explained, Germany actually was expanding its aircraft production at the rate of about 2,500 planes a month, while the United States under pressure was producing less than 300 planes a month.

After the fall of Dunkirk, Quick declared, "The United States had lost ground. Airplane design had moved so fast that much of our air power was obsolete. We had at this point, 1,500 planes suitable for combat with first line enemy planes."

By the middle of 1941, after Britain had fought off the Luftwaffe and retreated in Greece, Crete and Africa, we managed to boost production to 1,500 planes a month, Germany's production

JAPS FAR AHEAD

Pointing out that Russia started trading space for time in 1941 and we were attacked at Pearl Harbor, Quick showed that after the Japs' opening thrust "our Army Air Forces was left with exactly 176 airplanes in the entire Pacific area. It is estimated that Japan had 5,000 first line airplanes at that time, and a production rate of about 8,000 planes a year."

By late 1942, Quick went on, production made the Allies strong enough to stop both the Japs and the Germans, but it was not until the following year—the fourth of the war—that the Allies were strong enough to take the offensive.

ALL AT FAULT

"Now at this time when we are breathing easier," the speaker said, "we sanely try to affix the responsibility for that tragic period. The answer is specifically no one, but generally everyone."

"At that time anyone casting a prophecy that this country might ultimately be forced into a defensive position by a serious shortage of essential military equipment was called an agitator and a war monger."

"We suffered no physical damage during the three years and four months in which we prepared to defend ourselves," the speaker continued, "and every circumstance was in our favor for a speedy, maximum production, but we learned that it takes long months to turn blueprints into airplanes and fighting machines."

CITES WARNING

Quoting Navy Secretary Forrestal's recent declaration that "In the next war the enemy will be over our homes on the first day of hostilities," Quick termed the words a warning rather than a prophecy.

Quick described the great advances made in airplane design and performance since the start of the war and the "unlimited possibilities" of jet propulsion planes already in production.

"Radical departures from the morals with which we are familiar," he asserted, "are no longer comic strip dreams."

Pointing to the long months of research and development required before airplanes finally reach production, Quick quoted Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of the Army Air Forces, who termed "the first essential of the air power necessary for our national security is preeminence in research."

MUST HAVE AIR POWER

"The American people must never again assume," the general said, "as after the last war and as the French did up to the break through in 1940, that numbers of aircraft and quantities of equipment make an air force. A second-rate force is worse than none because it gives rise to a false sense of security, which bombs can quickly demolish."

Telling his audience that the decision rests with them as to the kind of air policy the United States must have for security and world peace, Quick warned that "Air power cannot conquer men, but it can annihilate industry. Air power alone cannot win a war, but the lack of air power will lose it."

320 at Clinic for X-Rays Last Week At Health Center

The mobile X-ray laboratory of the Riverside county Tuberculosis association, took 320 pictures when it visited Palm Springs last Friday, Mrs. Madge Holderman, public health nurse, said today.

The clinic was held at the Health Center on East Amador road and one of the big factors in the success of the event was the work of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association whose members visited all trailer villages here, signing up members for the tests.

Mrs. George B. Davies, Mrs. C. B. Hinckle and Mrs. O. M. Ward were busy all day at the Center filling out the necessary papers and helping out in the rush at the clinic.

Mrs. Guy Pinney, Mrs. John Sprague, Mrs. James B. Oliver, Mrs. Gordon Clarke, Mrs. Charles Burket and Mrs. Armand Turonnet were the members who contacted the trailer villages with such excellent results.

Charles Veith On East Coast

Charles A. Veith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Veith of Palm Springs, is now in Atlantic City attending United States Coast Guard radio training school. It is a six-month course and he will come out of it with a rating of Radioman 3/c.

While at Coast Guard boot camp, young Veith was with another Villager, Don Omlin.

U. S. Employment Service Offered

U. S. Employment Service representatives will be at Judge Guy Pinney's offices each Friday from 9:30 a. m. to 11 a. m., starting today.

Their services will be available to employ and employer.

Still Much Work Ahead, Red Cross Workers Are Told

Five representatives of the Palm Springs branch of the Riverside county Red Cross chapter, attended a meeting of chapter board of directors Monday at Riverside. They heard Verne Simmons, Pacific area manager, declare that "the collapse of Germany's fighting forces in Europe in no way lessens the American Red Cross responsibilities."

"Everything possible must be done to maintain Red Cross services to our troops remaining in Europe, the wounded in hospitals, liberated prisoners of war, civilian internees and returned veterans, and to intensify our operations with the military in the Pacific and China-Burma-India theaters," the speaker continued.

NEED FOR NURSES

He also emphasized the tremendous load our nurses and nurse's aides are carrying, its steady increase, and the desperate need for more graduate nurses, nurse's aids, and for training in home nursing, to relieve the load here at home, and asked all to help locate graduate nurses who can and will meet the challenge—the terrible need—for immediate help in the hospitals and on the front. As an example of the need, he said that the Red Cross actually has over one hundred workers on Okinawa right now, and it is far from the number needed.

Much information was given of the immense job being done, all through the A.R.C. Headquarters at Washington, and reports were made from each department in the Riverside county branch.

PRAISE FOR VILLAGERS

The outstanding work of Palm Springs group of Gray Ladies, under Mrs. Philip Boyd, and our Nurse's Aids, under Mrs. Melba Bennett, 51 of whom have given 3,121 hours of service during April, won special praise from Mrs. Edith L. D'Eliseu, county chairman.

Information was given the group about the Japanese balloons which have been coming over for some months—off the record data which was not to be printed.

Present at the meeting from the Village were Mrs. William A. Lippman, Mrs. Thomas Holland, Mrs. Frank W. Cutler, Mrs. Donald Lockett and Mrs. Guy Pinney.

His family he made several trips to New Zealand and Australia during that time. His business interests were abroad, being in the tea business before retiring, a few years ago.

He had many hobbies, greatest of which was his pleasure in painting pictures of horses and Indians. Many Villagers can attest to his skill and artistry in this line.

Mr. Bell is survived by his widow, Mrs. Albertine Bell and two daughters, Joan, now here, and Jacqueline, a Wave in the U. S. Navy.

TORNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL EVENTS

News of the Enlisted Men of the Medical and Quartermaster Detachments at Torney Army General Hospital, Palm Springs

By SGT. TED W. ENGSTROM

RECONDITIONING COUNSELLING

All patients to enter Torney General Hospital in the future, both bed patients and ambulatory, will be oriented to the hospital and its various functions upon arrival here. The Reconditioning Division has made arrangements to conduct a Post Orientation period for all new ambulatory patients each Monday morning, and members of the Reconditioning staff will interview and counsel all new patients either in the Wards or in the Orientation Center soon after arrival.

Special Office to Assist GIs Opened at Torney Hospital

Personal interest of General Joseph Stillwell in men of his Army Ground Forces has resulted in the establishment of Ground Forces Liaison offices at all army general hospitals in the United States.

Assigned as chief of the Ground Forces office at Torney General Hospital, Captain Robert Odell arrived there last week, and assisted by Staff Sergeant Walter Greshauk will counsel and assist men of the Ground Forces in all matters pertaining to their personal welfare and reassignment. Both have recently attended the school for personal services at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia.

Captain Odell returned a year ago from the Southwest Pacific where he served for 34 months with the 32nd Division. S/Sgt. Greshauk arrived December 28 from the East Indies area where he was on duty for 27 months with the 41st Division.

Sgt. Goodale Now In New York With Head ATC Offices

Sgt. George Goodale, who will be well remembered by Villagers, is now in New York and "still in the same line, public relations," he wrote.

He is in the New York office of the special assistant to the commanding general of the Air Transport Command.

While in Palm Springs with the 21st Ferrying Group he was engaged in public relations work and started the air base weekly newspaper, "21." He was with Capt. Bob Maxwell, also well remembered here who is now in special relations work at Dallas, Texas.

5th OTU FACTS

The Seventh War Loan campaign here on the base is assuming the drive of a steam-roller—irresistible, and it looks like all personnel, military and civilian alike, are going to heed the appeal to make our "participation" quota, placed at 100 percent, a reality. Each section comprising the group has "Minute" men in the field soliciting sales.

So far Section D is leading, but they can feel the breath of Section A right on the nap of their necks. Captain Duane C. Blair, CO of Section C asserted that his outfit will leave Section A tied to the three-quarter pole on the back stretch when the count is taken. However, Captain John R. Bender of Section A smiled, as if he knew something he just couldn't talk about at the moment.

The recent public announcement that cigarette ration cards would soon be issued to the military, and that 6 packages a week will be the allowance for soldiers and their dependents, will soon be in effect at this Base. The ration certificates are being printed now and will probably be issued between the period of May 27 to June 2.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, fraternal and service organizations, and officials of the city of Palm Springs, are going to be the invited guests of this Base at a swimming exhibition, May 27, at 3:30 p. m. The world famous swimming champion and motion picture star Johnny Weissmuller; Stubby Krueger, comic diving expert; Johnny Riley, Olympic games diver; Norman Speri, Jr., national diving champ; Katie Manley; Dorothy Paynton, Olympic champion; and Wave Winters will appear on the bill at the Officer's Club swimming pool. Following the show, refreshments will be served in the club.

The war news room in Information and Education department of the Personnel Services will really be on the beam with a capital "B" from now on. Through the efforts of this department, an Associated Press teletype machine has been installed and the latest news hot off the wires will now be available for dissemination to the personnel of this installation. Glory be! Sure and a wire editor, Captain Joe L. Brown, Personnel Service Officer will become.

Major John R. Hamilton assumed command of Section C just in time to again be the commanding officer of a Section to sponsor the regular Saturday night officers' dance. It was at the suggestion of the major, when in command of Section A, that the sponsorship of these dances be assumed in rotation by the various Sections of the Group. Before these dances, officers and their wives are given an opportunity to get acquainted at a dinner held in the Officers' Mess. The novel feature of the dance—a show which the sponsoring section puts on for the dancers—was a huge success under the guidance of Sections A and B.

The bi-annual dental survey of all military personnel on the Base is now taking place. The office of Captain Edwin H. Season, dental surgeon, is humming as a result, but he reports nothing more than the normal run of cavities to be filled and teeth to be extracted has been in evidence. Major Paul V. Davis, Base Surgeon, pointed out that this dental survey is a regulation of the Air Transport Command. One thing which the Major said—which speaks highly of this climate—was that the "common" cold is not common on this Base. At this time, his department is lending all of its support to the flying safety program. All flying personnel are obliged to undergo a rigid examination at the hands of the flight surgeon once a year, and after every illness.

Capt. John P. Clark Takes Over Hobbs Engineering Post

Capt. John Porter Clark, well known local architect of the firm of Clark and Frey, has officially taken over the duties of post engineer at the Hobbs, N. M., Army Air Field, in the AAF training command, according to notice from the field.

Entering the army here as a first lieutenant, he was promoted to the rank of captain Sept. 3, 1943. He was at Minter and Merced airfields before going to Hobbs. Enroute there, he stopped over in the Village to visit his partner, Albert Frey and other friends here.

He is a graduate of Pasadena high and Cornell University. Capt. Clark's mother, Mrs. Mary P. Clark, lives at Beaumont.

PEOPLE OF PALM SPRINGS!

Our Quota in the 7th War Loan Is

$511,180.00

BUY BIGGER BONDS —and More of Them!

Your War Bonds Are Like READY CASH

War Bonds are your safest investment. Safe in principal
... safe in return. You get $4 for every $3 you invest, at maturity.

Can we make it? We'll tell the world we can!

• Read that figure again, neighbor. It's not just a lot of numbers pulled out of a hat. It's our share, your share, in the mighty 7th War Loan.

Does it sound big, neighbor? Well, those Superforts that are plastering Japan are big—and cost plenty. Battleships are big—and cost millions. The job our fighting men are out to finish is big—and the cost is staggering.

So of course our job is big. But we can do it if you and every other patriotic American in this city buys a BIGGER bond than before—or invests a BIGGER portion of income in War Bonds now!

Two Drives in One

By this time last year, you had already subscribed in two War

Loans. This 7th War Loan is like two drives in one.

Study the chart below. See what your country expects you to do in the 7th War Loan. Remember, you are part of America—a part of America's might!

FIND YOUR QUOTA... AND MAKE IT!

IF YOUR AVERAGE WAGE PER MONTH IS:	YOUR PERSONAL WAR BOND QUOTA IS: (CASH VALUE)	MATURITY VALUE OF 7TH WAR LOAN BONDS BOUGHT

State Workers Improve Drive

Seal-coating of Palm Canyon drive from Tahquitz Creek bridge to Ramon road and from Alejo to the north city limits was started by state highway crews this week.

The work is being done with funds allotted from the gasoline tax for highway purposes within cities.

Length of the project within the city is 2.6 miles and the cost will be approximately $2160.

Pool Opening to Be Fixed Later

Exact date for opening of the municipal swimming pool is awaiting final details for its operation, City Manager Ray Sorum said today. Council accepted the offer of Frank W. Mr. Sorum said the opening would be about the middle of June.

Three Directors Will Be Chosen

Three new directors will be named for the Chamber of Commerce at the next board meeting, scheduled for June 5.

They will replace directors who are out of town including James G. Shea, who recently went into the army.

President Robert Ransom said this week that suggestions made for a better Palm Springs at the recent meeting at Frances S. Stevens school will be given first consideration by directors.

"Isn't he handsome?" And First Lieutenant Christine Yeager was not asking a question but breathlessly describing ex-Captain Joseph H. Wooddell, former intelligence officer with the 5th Operational Training Unit, Army Air Base here. The occasion was the return of Wooddell to this base attired in a natty civilian outfit—the first time his officer-wife had seen him so dressed.

"You know," continued Lt. Yeager, "I went downtown to meet Joe on his return from Camp Beale, separation center. He was standing with a group of other men on a corner in Palm Springs and I almost fainted when he said: 'Hi, Honey.'"

WIFE TO RETIRE, TOO

Mr. Wooddell returned to Palm Springs with documentary evidence of his discharge from the United States Army, which Lt. Yeager will use in obtaining a similar release from the service by virtue of her husband's discharge. While the WAC officer's application is pending, her husband will remain in Palm Springs.

Within five hours after the Captain's arrival at the separation center, he had been discharged and was on his way back to Palm Springs. However, he stopped at Los Angeles, where he went window-shopping, looking for that blue pin-striped suit soldiers have been talking about for so long. Instead, he completed his shopping tour by buying a brown one.

THEY UNDERSTOOD

A soldier standing by, admiring the sartorial civilian splendor draping the body of the ex-Captain, remarked that the Captain did not waste any time in changing into mufti. "Well, replied Mr. Wooddell, 'after five years in uniform, I . . .'" his smile and slight shrug of his shoulders completed his sentence to the complete understanding of all those present.

The former Captain is going to return to Oakland, Maryland, just as soon as his wife, a bride of a month, is released from the service. He intends to study dentistry at Johns Hopkins University.

age in establishing another record in Bond sales, the occasion should come up to, and surpass, previous premieres staged here in conjunction with Bond drives. Besides the picture, furnished by Mr. Strebe with the theater, there will be other entertainment.

Chairman Holland was highly elated with the results to date.

IT HAS A LURE

"Palm Springs certainly has a grip on a lot of people," he said. "Winter residents are going all out for the drive. Villagers, too, are coming in in great numbers. And people who used to live here, still keep the Village in mind and in heart. Mrs. Mary Shields, for instance. Formerly a home owner here, now of Hollywood, she sent a substantial check to aid in the meeting of the Village quota."

While the Village had topped its total quota for the drive, it was lagging in its E Bond quota and today Postmaster R. M. Gorham and Manager Fred Ingram of the Bank of America were concentrating on the $18.75,

Village Activities Outlined by Heads Of Civic Groups

Reports on activities in Palm Springs were made before Mayor E. E. Theriault's Co-ordinating committee in session last Friday. Representatives from 14 organizations were present.

Florian Boyd, chairman of the Community hospital association reported on plans to start construction of the hospital in the fall. Lloyd Simon reported on activities of the local DeMolay chapter and said the Lions Club had organized a civic improvement committee.

ACTION ON BILL

Reporting on the Tramway bill, Earl Coffman said that the bill had been recommended by two committees and would be on the floor of the assembly soon.

Edwin Stephens told of the rapid strides being made by the local squadron of the Civil Air Patrol and invited those present to visit the headquarters at 311 South Palm Canyon drive. President Elmo Purnell said Los Compadres club was ready to resume full activities in the fall and had some big plans for next year.

Dr. E. E. Oertel of Palm Springs high school, announced commencement week activities and told of the need for expansion at the city's schools.

LIENAU ON BOARD

Harold Lienau, new commander of Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion, was introduced by Gordon Feelings, retiring commander. Mr. Lienau will become a member of the mayor's committee representing the Legion. He said that the post had purchased land on Bellard road for a World War Memorial building and that active work toward its construction would start in the fall. He also asked that all business houses observe Memorial Day, particularly during the hours of the parade and services, 9 a. m. to 11 a. m.

INVITED TO BASE

Captain H. C. Fulton invited all present to attend the open house ceremonies at the army air base here when the fourth anniversary of the founding of the Army Transport Command will be observed.

C. J. Burket, president of the high school board, said facilities there were inadequate and plans were being drawn for a new six-room building. He also told of the need for a gymnasium.

President Robert Ransom of the Chamber of Commerce told of conferences with the OPA relative to the housing situation here and that their decision was now being awaited.

TO AID YOUTH

Discussion of the Youth Council activities revealed that portions of the Gray property, recently purchased by Earl Strebe would be available for a temporary recreation house for youth of the Village after August 1. In connection with recreation plans, Mr. Ransom reported a home owner had agreed to donate a large sum for postwar recreation here and that an 18-hole golf course had been proposed. Search for sites will be started soon, he said.

POOL TO OPEN

Mayor Theriault reported that the Frank Cutler pool will be available again as a public swimming pool. Harold West, Red Cross chairman reported on the start of first aid classes June 4 and stressed the need for nurses aides to assist Torney Hospital.

Mrs. John Sprague, president of the Woman's club reported on activities of that organization and the Welfare and Friendly Aid Association. Plans to avoid a conflict between the Legion's War Memorial drive and the Community Chest this fall were discussed. It was decided to have the committee meet monthly during the summer months.

$37.50 and so on Bonds. They were meeting success, too.

ANSWERS SCOFFERS

Mr. Ingram, in answering rumors of some scoffers who say that people are buying Bonds just "to show off," quoted treasury department figures showing that less than 1 per cent of Bonds purchased in various drives are being cashed in. Only one month, March, 1945, did the percentage of E, F or G Bonds cashed in, top 1 percent. And that month the figure was 1.14 per cent.

"As of April 30, this year, $1.96 per cent of the E Bonds, $33,076 million, issued since the start of the series, remain in the hands of the public," he said.

The fact that in March, the percentage did top 1 per cent, was due, no doubt, he said, to cashing in for income tax purposes.

Lt. M. J. Lieberman Provost Marshal at 5th OTU Base Here

First Lieutenant Martin J. Lieberman, recently arrived from 14 months service in Brazil and attached to the 5th Operational Training Unit, Ferrying Division of the ATC, Army Air Base, has succeeded Capt. Jay D. Lockerby as Provost Marshall at the base with added duties of a similar capacity in Palm Springs, according to a official announcement just released. Capt. Lockerby, one of the oldest officers from a standpoint of service at the Army Air Base, departed this week for an overseas station.

The new Provost Marshall, 28 years of age, hails from Newark, New Jersey. His wife is expected to join him here in Palm Springs as soon as she is able to travel after the expected birth "any day now of a boy—and I'm willing to lay odds that it will be a boy," Lt. Lieberman firmly declared.

The officer is only attached to the Air Corps as a member of the Corps of Military Police of the United States Army. He enlisted as a private November 6, 1941, and, because of his experience in peace work in the Sheriff's office of his home county, was assigned to the Military Police Corps. So far his tour of duty with the ATC dates back to April, 1943.

His detail of MPs who patrol the streets of Palm Springs and vicinity, and have established something of a record in the fine performance of their duties, are under the immediate supervision of S/Sgt. James Husey. Members of the squad are S/Sgt. Charles Riley, Pfc. Hugh Duet, Anthony Germano, Marshall McCaskill, and Pvt. Joseph Waltman.

An English lord was instructing his new colored servant in his duties, adding, "Now Zeke, when I ring for you, you must answer me by saying, 'My lord, what will you have?'"

A few hours later, having occasion to summon the servant, his lordship was astonished with the following:

"My Gawd, what does you want now?"

Villagers Waiting Further Word From Son Now in Europe

Whereabouts of Capt. Michael Smithwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Smithwick of Indian avenue, was unknown to his parents today.

But they did know that he's well and out of the German prison camp where he was confined for some time.

A belated Mother's Day greeting arrived from overseas this week from him for Mrs. Smithwick. Place of origin of the message was not given.

Capt. Smithwick was reported missing in action several months ago and a few days later, the International Red Cross informed his parents he was a Nazi prisoner of war. He was on a bombing mission over Germany when his plane was shot down.

Mrs. Smithwick is not worried about her son, especially since receiving the cablegram this week. She said that when he was in prison camp he was placed in charge of distribution of Red Cross packages and other responsible work and believes that he is now in France winding up the details of this work with the Red Cross.

His brother, Capt. Vincent Smithwick is now also in France. He wrote his parents here that he was "on the lookout for his brother."
